Self-Editing Tips for Self-Publishing Writers

You've written a book...but are you ready to push the "publish" button?

Learn 46 things to look for in their own work, from first draft to final layout. We'll talk about how to consider your work the way a professional editor would, how to recognize everything from pacing problems to formatting issues. Learn when you should tackle something yourself, and when you might need outside support to help get to the next level. Adults and teens welcome!
